

Censored Zine

I like text. I like writing because writing is like talking and I like talking but only to certain people. Writing is talking to myself ~~and I like myself. A little bit at least.~~ I think I am ~~fucking~~ great. I don't care what others think and nobody else is invited to this party anyway. Leave me on my own with a pencil and a scrap of paper and I am happy. ~~haha~~

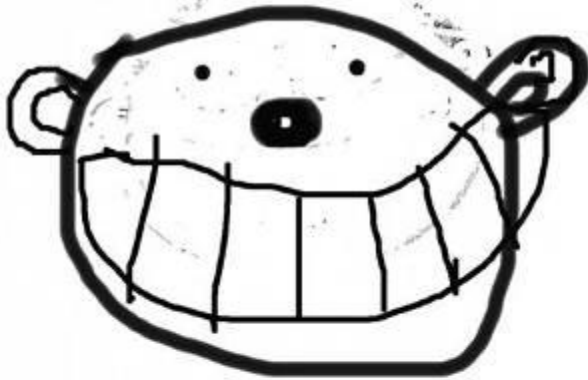

Image by Bob Milner

Censored Zine is a zine produced for Act Art's Censored event night taking place at the Islington Metal Works, London, 9th July 2010.

Censored Zines' aim is to engage with themes of censorship, in a historical or contemporary context; whether experienced as a form of self censorship or as a form of imposed censorship.

Visual and text based submissions are welcomed.

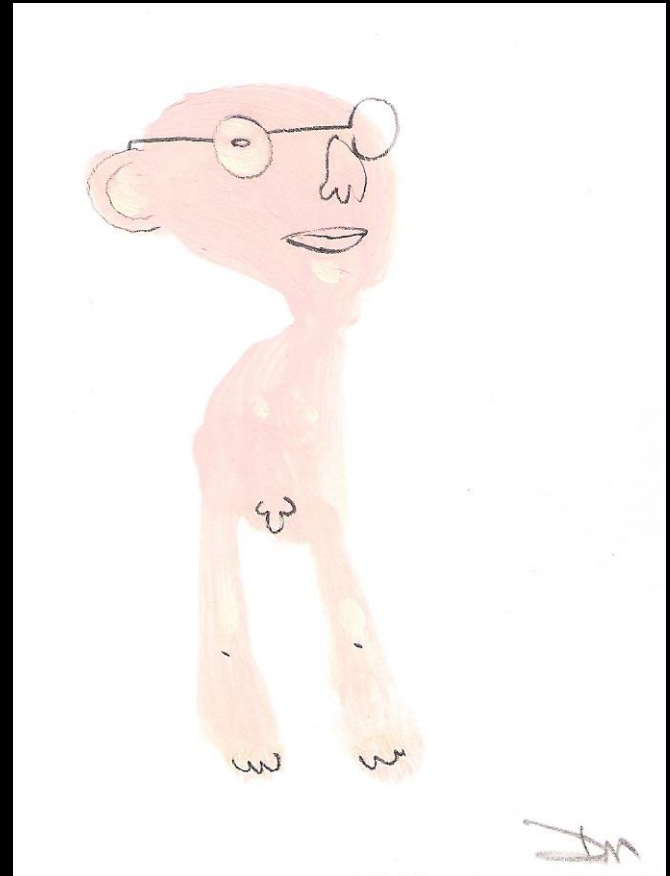

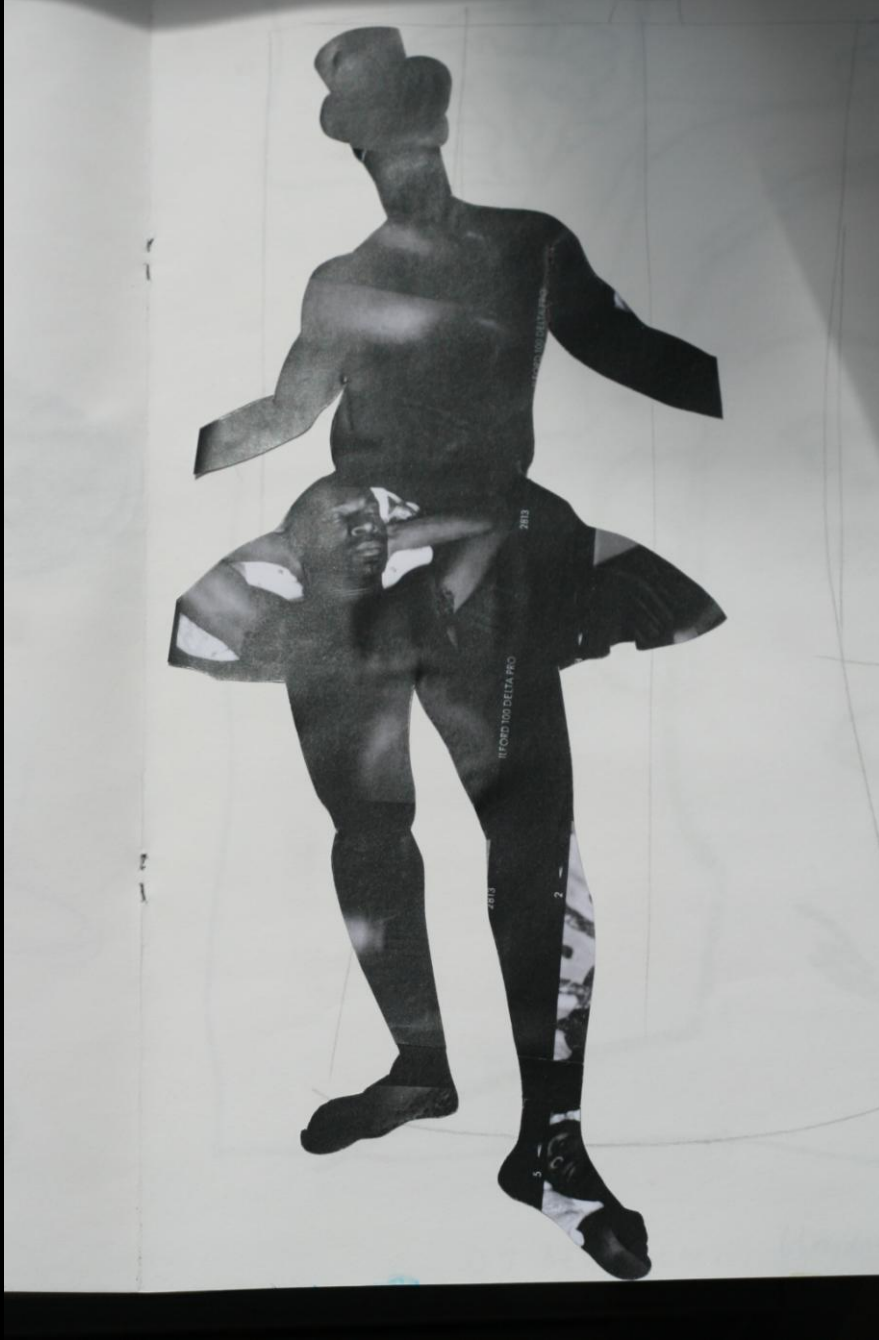

Image by Bob Milner

Produced by Susan Mortimer, Censored Zine is a A5 hand bound edition zine to be distributed free at Act Art's Censored event night.

Each contributor will receive a copy.

An online version will also be available.

Image by Betty Brown

'Willy' by Betty Brown

Submission deadline:
4th June 2010

For further information and to submit work please send your details and jpegs to:

Censoredzine@btinternet.com

Or visit Censored Zines' blog at:
Censored Zine

For further information about the Censored event please visit:

Act Art

For information about visual artist
Susan Mortimer please visit:

Susan Mortimer

'Galaxy' by Susan Mortimer